Christian Wills Guide

4 Easy Steps to a God-Honoring, Money-Saving Will

Congratulations! You're on your way to getting your financial "house" in order. And that's a great feeling, knowing that you have honored God, your family, and the ministries you love.

Before you visit a Christian estate planning attorney, fill in the blanks below as best as you can in each of the four sections. Your responses are completely confidential.

Doing this basic "homework" ahead of time will mean less billable time for the lawyer, and less cost for you. It also helps you prayerfully think things through at your own pace, so you can have confidence and peace about your decisions. If a question doesn't apply to you, just leave it blank.

If you're not sure about a question, don't worry about it - it's OK to leave it blank for now. Also, jot down any questions that come to mind as you fill in the blanks, and take them to your meeting with the attorney. When you are finished, simply print a copy for your attorney and for your records.

Step 4. The People and Ministries We Want to Bless

Not only does a Will protect and provide for your family, it also communicates your values to them and your heart for the Lord's work.

For many Christians, a gift from their Will (called a "bequest") is the largest contribution they will ever make to ministry - impacting people for Christ for generations to come. The most common approaches for ministry bequests are:

- Add Memphis Union Mission to your family. Some families treat ministry organizations like one additional child. For example, if a family has three children, they might add a fourth child named "Ministry" and divide the assets in their Will into four equal parts. Each of their children would receive 25%, and the remaining 25% would be divided among their favorite ministry organizations.
- Tithe on your Estate. Other families commit a 10% tithe of their estate to the ministry organizations they love, dividing the remaining 90% among their heirs.
- Cap. Others prayerfully decide on a "cap" for their children's inheritance, leaving the rest of their assets to advance the Lord's work here and around the world. This approach is used when the parents want to provide a modest gift to bless their children and eliminate concerns of creating dependence or giving too much too soon.

List the people, churches, and ministry organizations below to whom you wish to make a bequest:

1

Name of Person or Charitable Organization

City/State

Percentage of your estate you wish to leave to this person or organization

 %

Description of property you wish to leave (land, home, jewelry, collectibles, etc.)

2
